

News of the Intermountain Region

BOILER AND ENGINE INVOLVED IN SUIT

Action Is in Connection With Brick and Tile Stock Traded.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 14.—Alleging that 1000 shares of Superior Brick Tile and Milling company stock, now in his possession, is of no value, the Pioneer Land and Irrigation company today started an action in the district court against Edwin T. Wooley to recover the value of a forty-horsepower steam boiler and a thirty-horsepower upright engine which was traded for the stock.

The plaintiff declares that when the transfer was made the stock of the milling company was absolutely worthless and was known to be by Wooley, who is said to have represented the affairs of the company as being in a flourishing condition.

The shares of stock of the defendant company were traded on a basis of $1 each and represented to have a marketable value of $500. The plaintiff wants judgment for the value of the machinery now in the possession of Wooley and which he has refused to turn over.

MEETINGS OF INTEREST TO SCHOOL PATRONS

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of meetings with parents, the first of which was held at Utah this evening, has been arranged by Superintendent L. E. Egerton of the county schools.

The superintendent believes that by becoming acquainted with the parents of the pupils who attend the schools of the county, better results can be obtained and a better understanding among teachers, pupils and parents will result.

Similar meetings will be held at Harrisville Thursday and at Warrenton Friday.

Next Saturday afternoon, Superintendent Egerton will conduct a teachers' institute at the county high school for the benefit of the county pedagogues.

ARBOR DAY WILL BE OBSERVED IN SCHOOLS

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 14.—In all of the public schools of the city Arbor day will be appropriately observed tomorrow by the planting of trees and special programmes of music and addresses. Being a national holiday, the usual hours observed on such days at the postoffice will be observed.

At the state school for the deaf and blind, the day will be observed with the following program:

Governor's proclamation.
"Old Glory"..... Blind Orchestra
"Forest Preservation"..... Blind Orchestra
"March" (selection)..... Blind Orchestra
Address..... District Forester C. Leavitt
"Bohemian Girl"..... Blind Orchestra
Class Elm..... Blind Orchestra
Planting of trees.

FIRST DEGREE MURDER CHARGE AGAINST VACOS

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 14.—District Attorney Nathan Harris has prepared the formal information charging Nicholas Vacos, the Greek, now held at the county jail, with murder in the first degree. Vacos shot and killed John Conter, a countryman, in the latter's place of business in this city two weeks ago.

The information will be filed with the county clerk Friday, and at the same time Vacos will probably be arraigned. District Attorney Harris declared today that he will use his efforts to obtain a speedy trial for the prisoner.

Sues for Salary.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 14.—R. C. Lundy, formerly assistant manager of the Ogden Canyon Sanitarium company, today filed an action in the district court against J. H. Kurtz, trustee, and Charles H. Barton, receiver for the company.

Lundy says the company owes him $23.55 as salary from November 1, 1908, to October 18, 1907. The claim has been presented before, he declares, but no part has been paid. He says he was ordered out of the court previously filed, Mr. Lundy is seeking to secure judgment for this amount, when he will become a preferred creditor. He says he was employed as assistant manager at a salary of $100 a month.

Viaduct Nearly Complete.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 14.—The Twenty-fourth street viaduct will be ready to be thrown open to the public on May 1. The first team crossed the bridge this afternoon. A number of electric light poles and steel railings have yet to be placed and some riveting to be completed before the big bridge, which spans the railroad tracks, will be ready to turn over to the city.

For the Summer's Cooking

No kitchen appliance gives such actual satisfaction and real home comfort as the new Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove.

Kitchen work, this coming summer, will be better and quicker done, with greater personal comfort for the worker, if, instead of the stifling heat of a coal fire, you cook by the concentrated flame of the

NEW PERFECTION

Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove

Delivers heat where you want it—never where you don't want it—thus it does not overheat the kitchen. Note the CABINET TOP, with shelf for warming plates and keeping food hot after cooked, also convenient drop shelves that can be folded back when not in use, and two nickel bars for holding towels.

Three sizes. With or without Cabinet Top. At your dealer's, or write our nearest agency.

The Rayo LAMP never disappoints—safe, economical and a wonderful light giver. Solidly made, beautifully nicked. Your living-room will be pleasanter with a Rayo Lamp.

If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

CONTINENTAL OIL COMPANY
(Incorporated)

OGDEN DEPARTMENT

PERMANENT OFFICE, 2438 1/2 WASHINGTON AVENUE. TELEPHONE 111; OFFICE HOURS 8 A. M. TO 10:30 A. M., 6 P. M. TO 8 P. M.

OGDEN CITY TO HELP THE BIG ENCAMPMENT

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 14.—Following the request made of him at a recent meeting of the general executive committee, having in charge the arrangement for the encampment of the G. A. R. veterans who will attend the national encampment next summer, Mayor A. L. Brown has issued a call for a mass meeting of the citizens of the city to be held at the county court house next Tuesday evening, April 20.

Everybody who is interested in the entertainment of the delegates, who will visit Utah during the encampment, is invited to attend the meeting.

Letters Asked For.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 14.—In the probate division of the district court this afternoon, Oscar Barlow filed a petition for letters of administration upon the estate of Sarah Barlow, who died in Ogden, September 27, 1907. The estate consists of real property in Davis county. There are five heirs named in the petition.

Licenses to Wed.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 14.—Licenses to marry were issued by the county clerk today to the following: Raymond J. Smith and Violet Irene Best, both of Ogden; Walter S. Parker, Jerome, and Clara Yekel, Hart, Morion, Cal.; James Walker and Emma C. Symes, both of Hoytsville.

Grand Ball Thursday, April 15, at Saltair.

BEAR RIVER VALLEY TO MAKE A LARGE DISPLAY

Special to The Tribune.

BIGHAM CITY, April 14.—The board of governors of the Bear River Valley Commercial club, who have in charge an enormous exhibit at the state fair, at Provo, Utah, a short time ago, further the plans for the exhibit.

Committees have already been named to handle some of the many branches of exhibits. It is the intention of the club to have on display every kind of grain, fruit and vegetable grown in the valley, also manufactured articles such as brick, tile, cement blocks.

The manufactured articles will be in charge of John Saunders and J. C. Whelan. In charge of the vegetable display will be Matthew Baer, Obit Jensen, A. E. Holmgren, Joseph Watkins, P. B. Capener. In charge of the fruit or rather apple display are Morten Mortensen, Lewis Cecil and Walter Green.

The committee on fruit promises one of the largest and best displays of apples ever shown in the state. The fruit crops will be carefully watched during the season by the committee.

The club will induce stock men to make an exhibit, and W. S. Hanson, J. I. Jewett and M. B. Hart have been appointed to secure the exhibit. The various breeds of livestock. The idea of the extensive exhibit is to thoroughly advertise the great Bear River valley.

That a display that will do great credit to Box Elder county will be made is assured by the fact that the members of the above-named committees are some of Box Elder's foremost business men.

Another meeting of the Commercial club will be held on Saturday afternoon. The board of governors comprises John P. Holmgren, chairman; K. H. Tidball, secretary; John Whelan, C. G. Adney, E. Allan, E. Roche, Hon. W. S. Hanson, David Holmgren, Hon. J. C. Francum and John Sommer.

Murray News Notes.

Special to The Tribune.

MURRAY, April 14.—Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Sarah Harrison of Sandy, who was drowned in the Jordan river Saturday morning, were held at Provo today. The body was shipped Tuesday evening. Services were also held at Sandy over the remains, and were largely attended. Bishop Kurkie officiated at the services, and those who delivered brief addresses were Mrs. H. Shaw, James Benson, Edward Bligh and C. C. Crapo.

Bernard Anderson rendered a vocal solo. There were many beautiful floral tributes in evidence. Mrs. Harrison was the sister of Mayor W. W. Wilson of Sandy.

The funeral over Charles H. Barton, who died at his home in South Cottonwood Saturday at the age of 72, will be held at Logan today. The deceased is survived by a widow and four sons.

The citizens of Bingham Junction have decided upon a name for their town, and the name adopted is the result of a mass meeting held Tuesday evening. J. W. Smith of the United States smelter won the prize offered for the best name suggested. Other business pertaining to the speedy incorporation of the town was transacted. A special committee will meet with the county commissioners this week.

Contractor James Wood expects to complete the paving of East Seventeenth and South street this week. The new sidewalks have now been laid on both sides of State street for a distance of one-half mile.

NO CLUE SECURED TO NOVEL BURGLARIES

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 14.—No clue has been secured by the police to the unusual cases of burglary, which occurred at the stores of Paul Hurrell and the Hasmonean company Monday night. Officers Rich, Phinck and Burk discovered that the places had been entered by the burglars, and their getaway evidently a few minutes before the arrival of the officers.

From neither of the stores was anything taken, it being evident that the thieves had no taste for dry goods, but were after real money.

A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar-proof vaults of the Salt Lake Security and Trust company, 32-34 Main street, $2.00 per year.

Change at Pacific.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 14.—J. J. Murphy, a well-known dining car conductor, until recently having a run out of this city, has taken the management of the Pacific hotel, which is situated at the corner of the Union depot. Mr. Murphy succeeds Harry Curtis, who leaves the city on his vacation.

Series of Lectures.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

PROVO NEWS NOTES

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, April 14.—The Utah County Medical society met today in regular session in dining car conductor, until recently having a run out of this city, has taken the management of the Pacific hotel, which is situated at the corner of the Union depot. Mr. Murphy succeeds Harry Curtis, who leaves the city on his vacation.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

OGDEN, April 14.—A series of free lectures will be delivered in Ogden, beginning Sunday, in room A of the Provo hotel, by Dr. E. W. Talbot, J. L. D., who is the founder of the Mental Science college of Seattle.

LADIES—Don't forget in your next order to your grocer to gently but firmly insist on Hewlett Uncolored Japan Tea.

TIRES OF WAITING FOR MAN WITH THE SCYTHE

Aged Ephraim Man Takes His Own Life at Three Score and Ten Years.

Special to The Tribune.

EPHRAIM, April 14.—Weary of waiting for the appearance of the grim reaper, John Nielson, aged 70 years, committed suicide about 8 o'clock this morning by hanging. Shortly after 7 o'clock Mr. Nielson took himself to the barn of the Nielson place, where he was working, and hanged himself to a beam.

When the body was discovered it was in a kneeling position, evidencing the fact that the man was in a state of religious fervor. The body was found by a neighbor who called to see him. The body was found by a neighbor who called to see him.

Friends of Mr. Nielson are at a loss to account for his act. He had been a resident of the place for twenty-five years, having followed the vocation of shoemaker, and was in good health, considering his age. It also was reported that he had no family troubles. His wife died about twelve years ago, and five children survive.

PARK COMMERCIAL CLUB GETTING TO THE FRONT

Special to The Tribune.

PARK CITY, April 14.—At the city hall last evening another enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of this city was held for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee on bylaws and constitution for the Commercial club, which is being organized in this city.

Two of the children of Bishop Money are seriously ill with diphtheria. Marshall Dart has been suffering with rheumatism, but is on his "beat" again.

Miss Ella C. Herron of Hungerford spent the Easter holiday with Mrs. Theo. Lee.

Mrs. Spencer, wife of Electrician Spencer of the reclamation service, came down to the Easter service in the Presbyterian church.

Don W. Lee of Tucson, Ariz., has returned to Spanish Fork to work in the bee business for the summer.

Mrs. Levi Stewart spent Sunday in Provo.

Dr. Warner has bought a one-third interest in the City drug store, and has moved his office there. The store has taken on new life with this move.

Mrs. Andrew Engberg is lying seriously ill with nervous prostration. Dr. Kendall is in attendance.

Special to The Tribune.

PAYSON, April 14.—Mrs. William Patton returned the first of the week from the capital, where she has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Musser.

Philo Wightman came down from Silver City and spent Sunday with his family.

Miss Stella Liddle left Monday morning for the city to spend a few days.

After a week's vacation, Miss Reba Simons returned to Salt Lake to resume her work at teaching.

Miss Birnie went to Eureka Monday evening with friends.

Arthur Liddle returned to Fairfield Monday afternoon, where he has been visiting his office there. For the past week, he having been called home on account of sickness.

A trial game of baseball was pulled off at Spanish Fork last Friday between the Payson and Spanish Fork high school teams. The game resulted in the score of 5 to 6 in favor of the home team.

Payson has now begun in earnest on the cement sidewalks. Bates, Wilds & McDowell, the contractors, are pushing the work to the utmost, and when it is finished Payson will have about 15,000 feet of cement walks.

Miss Pearl McCollan was in Eureka this night visiting with friends.

Mrs. Amanda Hansen returned from Eureka Tuesday morning, after an extended visit there with her brother, Con Hansen.

Mrs. Rolland Hall of Spanish Fork, P. E. Marsh, the middle of this week.

Paul Worthin of Eureka spent Sunday and Monday with his family.

Joe Richmond came down from Eureka Sunday morning and spent a few days with his parents.

Arbor day was observed by a good many of our people yesterday. The teachers and students of the different schools laid aside their studies and spent a part of the afternoon in cleaning the school grounds and planting trees.

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD LAD LOSES ONE OF HIS LEGS

Special to The Tribune.

EUREKA, April 14.—While attempting to board the Rio Grande Western freight train when it pulled in at this station about 11 o'clock this morning, Orville McKellar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McKellar, fell under the wheels and had his right leg taken off at the knee and the big toe of his left foot amputated.

Dr. J. J. Howell attended the injuries of the child. The father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital. The child's father also was hurt and was taken to the hospital.

Payson News Notes

Special to The Tribune.

PAYSON, April 14.—Mrs. William Patton returned the first of the week from the capital, where she has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Musser.

Philo Wightman came down from Silver City and spent Sunday with his family.

Miss Stella Liddle left Monday morning for the city to spend a few days.

After a week's vacation, Miss Reba Simons returned to Salt Lake to resume her work at teaching.

Miss Birnie went to Eureka Monday evening with friends.

Arthur Liddle returned to Fairfield Monday afternoon, where he has been visiting his office there. For the past week, he having been called home on account of sickness.

A trial game of baseball was pulled off at Spanish Fork last Friday between the Payson and Spanish Fork high school teams. The game resulted in the score of 5 to 6 in favor of the home team.

Payson has now begun in earnest on the cement sidewalks. Bates, Wilds & McDowell, the contractors, are pushing the work to the utmost, and when it is finished Payson will have about 15,000 feet of cement walks.

Miss Pearl McCollan was in Eureka this night visiting with friends.

Mrs. Amanda Hansen returned from Eureka Tuesday morning, after an extended visit there with her brother, Con Hansen.

Mrs. Rolland Hall of Spanish Fork, P. E. Marsh, the middle of this week.

Paul Worthin of Eureka spent Sunday and Monday with his family.

Joe Richmond came down from Eureka Sunday morning and spent a few days with his parents.

Arbor day was observed by a good many of our people yesterday. The teachers and students of the different schools laid aside their studies and spent a part of the afternoon in cleaning the school grounds and planting trees.

Arbor day was observed by a good many of our people yesterday. The teachers and students of the different schools laid aside their studies and spent a part of the afternoon in cleaning the school grounds and planting trees.

Arbor day was observed by a good many of our people yesterday. The teachers and students of the different schools laid aside their studies and spent a part of the afternoon in cleaning the school grounds and planting trees.

Arbor day was observed by a good many of our people yesterday. The teachers and students of the different schools laid aside their studies and spent a part of the afternoon in cleaning the school grounds and planting trees.

Arbor day was observed by a good many of our people yesterday. The teachers and students of the different schools laid aside their studies and spent a part of the afternoon in cleaning the school grounds and planting trees.

Arbor day was observed by a good many of our people yesterday